Floor-to-ceiling sliding glass walls disappear completely, creating an uninterrupted transition between the interior and expansive outdoor areas.

A full bar/lounge on the first and a terrace dining area offer the ultimate in outdoor entertainment.

The angular infinity pool, a true architectural centerpiece, provides panoramic sea views - completely secluded for privacy and serenity.

A glass-enclosed lounge, protected from wind and sun, offers an all-season space, while the stone garden features natural texture and color.

A second-level master lounge with hammock and canopy bed is framed by lush tropical walls, creating an exotic sanctuary.

Second Floor Living - Space, Light & Design

Decorating materials: jacuzzi

Two expansive bedroom suites, each with a private terrace, elegant ensuite bathrooms, and access to private terraces with jaw-dropping sea and mountain views.

The master floor is a sanctuary in itself.

A sprawling master suite with luxurious bedrooms, direct access to a private private terrace, and a large heated outdoor area - ideal for yoga, tennis, or peaceful contemplation.

A flexible master - currently a painting studio, can easily become a home office, guest suite, or gym.
