Sometimes, we never know what a good thing is until we come across whatever can effectively challenge that notion in every way possible, forcing us to acknowledge that within the world there exists true beauty with yet more discoveries to be made. And this property right here, it is one of the best if not the best of what there is to offer of the Calpe area. Situated within a large plot at 3500 sq. meters, this 605 sq. meters house has been spread across 2 floors and serves up magical views of the sea and the mountains which constitute the surrounding area. It has various relaxation spots which have been organized to facilitate immense pleasure.

The property has been oriented to face the pool area while a green hand has been utilized in carefully tending to the potted plants which grace the frontal region thereby adding color and vibrancy for a breathtaking setting,.

Through the porch area, step into the fully furnished home whose atmosphere is inviting, airy and bright with the white walls acting as the perfect canvass for the décor and coordinated fixtures and fittings that strike a homey yet elegant balance throughout the house.

Who said black is not beautiful, a color which manages to appear in most rooms of the house creating a distinct character that is hard to ignore. From the spacious living room and into the intimate dining room, the 4 bedrooms and 6 bathrooms, comfort has been made a reality in more ways than one making this property ideal as a forever home.

Outside, there is a grandiose tropical garden where you can host family and friends for parties of the year if not century or even celebrate anniversaries and conduct wedding ceremonies in- that is how special this green plot of land is. There is also a wonderful swimming pool among other surprises which you can only discover while residing here. Make that call to get started.
