This luxurious and prestigious condominium located in a prime location on the Costa Blanca, designed by a renowned Spanish architect, Carlos Gilardi. The property offers stunning panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea and Altea, which can be enjoyed from the large 145 m² terrace surrounding the condominium. The condo itself boasts an extra-large living room and two spacious bedrooms, each with a bathroom ensuite. The well-equipped kitchen includes all the amenities and has an adjacent pantry for added convenience. Furthermore, the property also includes a private parking space at the same level as the condominium and additional guest parking. There are two large swimming pools on the property, both with breathtaking views over the Mediterranean and the picturesque town of Altea. 5 minutes to the golf club Don Cayo and 5 minutes to the yacht harbour Puerto Campomanus.

The building is secured with 24-hour private security, providing added peace of mind for residents. This is a highly desirable property for anyone looking for a luxurious and convenient living experience on the Costa Blanca
