From the garage there is a flat path to the staircase with nine steps up to the villa and pool terrace. You enter into an open naya with lovely views, a great place to enjoy the sunsets to the west. The front door leads you straight into the spacious living room with an open fireplace and a window overlooking the pool. Through an archway you enter the dining area a good luminous space with glazed doors to the naya and a window. To the left of the living room is the kitchen which has been fitted with gloss cream units and granite worktops including oven, gas hob, telescopic extractor, 45cm dishwasher, washing machine and fridge, it also has the benefit of a pantry. From here there is a hallway to the bedrooms and bathroom. First is the second bedroom a spacious bedroom with built-in wardrobes, air conditioning and a window looking over the back garden. Next is the superb renovated bathroom which includes walk-in shower, vanity unit with black glass basin and an electric towel rail heater. At the end of the hallway is the spacious master bedroom which has built-in wardrobes, air conditioning and a wall mounted television for early nights or lazy mornings. The pool terrace is private and very spacious with lovely open views, it includes a pergola for relaxing in the shade, table and chairs for alfresco dining, a barbecue, coffee table and chairs and still plenty of space for sun sun loungers.
